BARBRA STREISAND: singer, actress, director, legend!

Much has been written about the early days of her career, but "Barbra and Barry: the Way We Were" is the only one that was written by someone who was actually there! Author Barry Dennen lovingly recalls, in remarkable detail, the story of how he and a teenage Barbara (the way she originally spelled her name) Streisand met, fell in love, and shared a remarkable voyage of personal and artistic discovery together.

Dennen was the mentor, lover, coach and friend who helped her develop the cabaret act that would ultimately introduce Barbra's incredible vocal talent to the world. Together, they created "Barbra" and forged a relationship that has spanned more than 30 years.

Not just a must-read biography, "Barbra and Barry: the Way We Were" is also a historical record, recounting the heady days of the early 1960's performing arts scene in New York City, with unforgettable characters and a first-hand account of some well-loved but now long-lost performance venues.

Newly updated for eReaders, "Barbra and Barry: the Way We Were" was formerly published in print under the title "Barbra and Barry: A Love Story."
