Readers' Comments It is about time we have such a book available. I am a SRA survivor and my feeling when reading this book was, "finally, someone who REALLY understands the SRA survivor." I gave up on counseling several years ago because no one understood or even believed me. There are very few counselors out there who are equipped to deal with such survivors (I never found one) and I am glad that Pastor Clark is spreading the word of truth to the ignorant. I was ostracized from churches and well-meaning Christians who were clueless and/or disbelieving that such things could happen in this country. Pastor Clark's book points out to the ignorant that the results of their unbelief add a great deal more pain and trauma to the survivor. Survivors need prayer, encouragement and most of all, someone to believe them in order for them to heal from their severe traumas. I pray that every church member reads this book and amasses an army of believers to combat this plague through prayer and ministry to the survivor, to really be there for them in understanding. - A Survivor I can't think of a better way to tell what this book is about than just giving the capture titles which are as follows: The Biblical and Psychological Understanding of S.R.A.M.P.D., Seventeen Principles of Spiritual Warfare Based on God's Word, Diagnosing S.R.A.M.P.D., A Pastor's Perspective of M.P.D., The Role of The Church From a Survivor's Perspective, Two Survivor's Perspective on the Healing Process, Keys to Breaking Satanic Programming, The Healing Process and Session work, and Keys to Healthy Integration. There are two reasons for publishing this book. 1) There is a real lack of books on the market on this subject. I hope this book will be a helpful tool for others who are working in the same area. 2) I want survivors to know there is hope! You can be healed and set free! That is why I had two survivors write their experiences so I could put them in this book.
