Songs from the Heart: A Devotional Journey through the Psalms presents an exploration of the Psalms designed to stretch over the course of a year. Each daily offering provides a clear and complete analysis of the passage referenced and a helpful cue for a prayer of response. Poetry has always been a tool used to express the deepest pains, the toughest struggles, the most desperate prayers, and the highest hopes of men and women, and the ancient book of Psalms contains some of the most profound and beautiful poems in existence. In today's fast-moving world, it is truly surprising how often the problems and issues we encounter seem to mirror those faced by the writers of these verses from centuries ago. As you read through the Psalms and this companion guide, you will be comforted amid the painful experiences of your life and freshly encouraged in your faith through inspiring moments of contemplation, grace, and celebration. Songs from the Heart: A Devotional Journey through the Psalms shares a song of inspiration for every day of the year.
