Clay Gibbs is an up and coming MMA fighter ... with a past he wishes to leave behind. He has witnessed more brutality than any one person should. Losing it all has taught him to fight for the things that matter. With no real family left, he has built a new one surrounded in his friends. They may not be blood, but they have a bond. In the center of it all is the one woman he finds he can't be without. A fiery redhead that makes his heart beat wildly. He's waited for her ... can it finally be their time?

Jade Chambers is a firecracker. A ball of flames so hot she will burn through anything in her path to get the life she wants. After almost losing it all just as it began, she's determined not to let anything slip through her grasp again.

The one thing she didn't factor on was Clay Gibbs not fearing the heat. Will she love him or will she burn him?
