A Fun, Standalone Stepbrother Romance with No Cliffhanger

Life has a way of making things complicated and Hannah is no stranger to complications. When she loses her job and the threat of eviction hangs over her and her friend, she finds there is only one place left to turn. It just so happens that the only option she has left is at the hands of her now incredibly estranged ex-stepbrother. With little left to lose she finds that complications just have a way of making themselves worse. Sometimes it is in the most unexpected of places that we find something that we truly want to hold on to....
