Monique has loved Stanley for most of her life. He's all she's ever known in a man. Stanley and their daughter, Nissa, are all that matter. On what should be a happy day for Monique, she gets some news that changes everything in an instant. She's not sure how she'll go on, and move past tragedy, but she knows she has to. It's not just for her daughter, but to make sure that the person, or people, who took a part of her away, pay for what they did. Nissa is a fiery teenager who plays by her own rules and likes to live life fast. Even though her mother knows a thing or two about the streets, it doesn't stop Nissa from doing her own thing. However, when Nissa becomes entangled in a situation that's way over her head. Survival is the only thing on her mind. When the worlds of past and present collide, Monique is forced to revisit a place that almost broke her. Will she be able to save her daughter before she meets a fate like that of her father years before? Or will it be too late? Tainted Loyalty is a story about murder, lost love, broken trust, and the worst kind of betrayal. It leaves you to wonder...Just who can you trust?
