Learning to Dance in the Rain

From Caldwell Kansas to the Corners of the World; Memories of an Air Force Wife

Martha Bothwell married Air Force Major Reo Trail in 1949 and thus began the adventure of a lifetime! First and foremost, Martha made a home for her family when and wherever she found herself, whether in the newest AFB housing, her own home, or the jungles of Ecuador.

Perhaps her most challenging encounter was when she entered the jungles of Ecuador to visit the compound of the surviving family members of the ill-fated missionaries murdered by the savage Acua tribe just a few years earlier.

She pursued her bachelor's degree and later her master's degree while caring for her family, upholding her duties as the wife of a military officer, and teaching.

Martha knew from the onset that she wanted to travel and she wanted to teach. She did both in spades, with humor, patience, and courage.
