Happy Now? S M Mala

Flora fancies Ed, the best looking boy at school.

Ed fancies Flora, a girl he's got the hots for.

She's sixteen and he's fifteen but social circles mean that their paths rarely cross. And when they do, it's always brief.

One day, they cross in a big way, and they fall in love.

But something unexpected happens and the young lovers never get together.

Twenty five years later, older and wiser, their paths cross again. Too many things have changed and they've both been hit by loss and tragedy, one way or another.

A funny, uplifting, romantic tale about young love and whether time can rekindle teenage memories for two forty somethings who have been battered and bruised by time.
