Never Let Me Go L.K. Gandy

Sawyer Hall, a successful lawyer from Nashville, spends most of her time working or partying with her charismatic best friend, Charlee. Struggling with memories of her college boyfriend, Jaxx, and the loss of their baby, she is unprepared for the feelings that emerge when she meets Branson Phillips. Branson Phillips is a local bar owner with dark hair, vibrant green eyes, and a laugh that awakes emotions Sawyer hasn't felt in a very long time. She never expected another man to walk into her life and turn it on end. The question is, now that he has, will she be able to let go of the painful loss of her past and allow love back into her life?
