The Online Diary of a Masochistic Submissive Raina Chapman

In 2007 I created an online diary (a 'blog') about my life. I am a masochistic submissive and this gave others an insight into my life which, let's face it, is probably a lifestyle that isn't accessible to many.

I started the diary with a few brief entries about my childhood and some of the things I went through in my early years - and yes, they were abusive years.

From there I continue into my teen years as a prostitute and on to my adult married life with two children.

Today I am extremely content with my life and strongly feel that I have left behind anything that could be considered abusive although, as a masochist, most people would say my whole life is centred around abuse - although I would disagree.

This book will not appeal to many readers I feel sure of that. However, if you are curious about my life, it could be of interest to you.

Please bear in mind that this book contains entries from that online diary and thus it won't read like a conventional book. Each day brought some new adventures so there is no 'plot' as such.

The book is almost 300 A4 pages long so there are quite a few diary entries here.
