Defending her family – no problem. Recalling past lives – maybe just a small problem. Taking a chance on love again – well...

Jasmine Gibson has her world turned upside down when she meets gorgeous Sean Taylor. He's the first man she's been attracted to since her fiancé dumped her two years ago. But when the disturbing daydreams start, Jasmine begins to fear that her actions in a past life may have finally caught up with her.

Sean finds it impossible to stay away from Jasmine even though he can't shake the inexplicable feeling of betrayal simmering deep inside him every time he sees her.

To complicate things, someone is out to hurt Jasmine and every time she and Sean are together the police have to be called. Even if Jasmine can make Sean trust her, the two of them may not stay alive long enough to enjoy their love this time around.
