I Can't See in the Dark: So I Think Gena Wade

Each story contained in I Can't See in the Dark expresses various degrees of emotions and sincerity, as does life and its myriad of experiences. Nevertheless, the facts have been creatively and innovatively expressed with the intent to have its readers receptively reinvent their own knowledge of themselves and their experiences. As an advocate of perception, I ask that you proceed diligently through your thoughts in search of a more practical perspective. Moreover, I request with great urgency that every individual that accepts the concept of continuity also be willing to accept the direct correlation between this and that and its result
